

To Prospective Participants of the 2010 CLS Summer Program in Tokyo:
Accommodations

We are sorry that Chuo Law School does not have lodging facilities to offer to participants. We ask that you arrange your air tickets and accommodations yourself.

However, the following agency is able to offer one-stop service for participants from Korea. Two hotels located near Chuo Law School are also listed below.

(1) M&S Corporation, Ltd.

M&S Corporation, Ltd. (M&S) is a student service provider doing business in Japan and Korea. For participants from Korea, M&S offers services including international air tickets between Korea and Japan, hotel accommodations in Tokyo, pick-up service at Haneda airport (note: not Narita) and optional social events.

For participants from countries other than Korea, M&S offers hotel reservations and optional social events only.
